The Agile Alliance has announced the Agile2014 Program And Schedule. Join over 1,800 attendees from around the world for the Agile event of the year, July 28th – August 1st at the Gaylord Palms in Orlando, Florida, USA.

View the Conference Program and explore the 240 Talks and Workshops. 16 Program Tracks offer a comprehensive offering of Agile knowledge and expertise for Agile Teams, Developers, Managers and Executives.

“This year we received nearly 1100 submissions for just over 200 speaking slots,” said Mitch Lacey, AGILE2014 conference chair. “Narrowing down the selection was a very difficult task, as there were so many great proposals. In the end, we’ve chosen the sessions we believe will spark important conversations, generate transformative ideas and advance the leading edge of Agile thought.”

This is your best opportunity in 2014 to network with the most active and influential Agilists on the planet and learn the latest development methods, technologies, tools, leadership principles, management philosophies, policies and processes.
